Shanghai, March 19, 1940.

URGENT.

Sir and dear Colleague,

I have the honour to ask for your kind assistance in the following matter:

It has been brought to my knowledge that Miss Galina Tivtcheva, an under age Soviet citizen, (about 17 years old) residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tivtchev, at 455/17 Rue Lafayette (Park Apartment) left her home at about 10 a.m. on Monday March 18, and has later not returned to same.

Miss Tivtcheva was working as a teacher at the Peter Pan School (a private British organization at 133, Route de Boissezon, French Concession); she has been seen several times lately with a certain Charles James of the E-company 2nd Bat. U.S. Marine Corps, who might be able to give some information about her; the last time she is known to have been seen with him was on Sunday, March 17th. As the parents of Miss Tivtcheva were on the point of leaving Shanghai for the U.S.S.R. and had already booked passage for the whole family, the disappearance of the girl as well as her future fate constitute a matter of grave concern to them they have now applied to this Consulate General for assistance to locate her. As Miss Tivtcheva is young and inexperienced, it is of the greatest importance to find her as soon as possible. I have therefore the honour to ask you to be kind enough to request the Police of the French Concession to undertake an immediate search for her and let me know the result.

I enclose a photograph of Miss Tivtcheva.

I am sending copy of this letter to the Police of the S.M.C., asking them whether they could assist in locating Miss Tivtcheva.

Thanking you for your valuable co-operation in this matter,

I have the honour to be,
Sir and dear Colleague,
Your obedient servant,
